

Stai Assignment 2

Biswajit Kumar Senapati
2241019366, SEC:-08

- 1) It cannot be a definitive trait of superiority because intelligence depends not only on brain size but also on neural complexity, environment and cognitive abilities.
- 2) Physical (Annaraya kosha) → body
 - Energy (Pranaraya kosha) → life force
 - Mental (Manoraya kosha) → thoughts
 - Intellectual (Vijnanaraya kosha) → knowledge
 - Spiritual (Anandaraya kosha) → bliss
- 3) Season: Generally 6 (Ritu)
known Planets: Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn
- 4) Nadi: Channels through which energy flows
Prana: vital life force
During death, Prana exits via nadis, influencing the next birth
- 5) Found in Mehrgarh (Baluchistan) around 7000 BCE-3000 BCE
- 6)
 - Tools (axes, knives)
 - Ornaments (jewelry)
 - Weapons
 - Household items

- 7). Dharma (duty)
- Artha (wealth)
 - Karma (desire)
 - Moksha (liberation)

It is a 'live demonstration' as it guides practical human life balance.

- 8) Through meditation and pranayama, practitioners experience energy flow, activating Chakras and gaining awareness of subtle body systems.
- 9). Gold: Obtained from rivers/mines; used in jewelry, coins
- Silver: Used in currency, trade
- Silver production indicates economic development and metallurgy advancement.
- 10). Science (Empirical knowledge)
- Spirituality (Philosophical truth)
- Thus, it acts as a bridge ensuring coherence.
- 11). Emerged around 1200 BCE
- Wootz Steel: High-quality steel known for strength
- Important for weapons and exported globally.
- 12) Technology (Communication, transport) reduces distance, making the world interconnected → "Global Village" Concept
- 13). Rust-resistant iron
- Shows advanced metallurgy
 - Symbol of scientific excellence

1) India was a pioneer in zinc distillation (Zawar mines)
First large-scale zinc production in the world

15) Pasa vidya

Spiritual knowledge
leads to liberation

Apasa vidya

Material knowledge
Leads to worldly
Success

16) Bidri ware: Metal craft using zinc + silver inlay
• Metallurgy controlled by guilds/artisans (Shrenis)

17) Both describe pure existence (being) as the fundamental reality without attributes.

18) Descartes: Dualism (Mind & body)
Spinoza: One substance (God = Nature)

19) • Mining processes
• metal extraction
• state control of resources

20) Vashamihisa contributed to metallurgy & astronomy
• Nasadiya Sukta: Absolute is known, beyond creation
& existence

21) • Tat Tvam Asi
• Aham Brahmasmi
• Prajnarvam Brahma
• Ayam Atan Brahma
• Savam khalvidam Brahma

22) Leads to cycle of rebirth (samsara) until liberation is achieved

23)

Way X
Universal/local beliefs
Flexible
Individual interpretation

Way Y
Guru guided path structured
Discipline & guidance

24) Diversity of beliefs

- Lack of trust in authority
- Culture difference